The Eighth Annual Lecture in a Series Honoring Camille Rajpat

The University Honors Program, Office of Undergraduate Studies, and the Department of Resident Life are pleased to host a lecture and discussion featuring

The Political Landscape

AMY WALTER

Renowned Political Analyst

Named one of the most powerful people in American politics by George Magazine, Amy Walter is known for her insights into political dynamics. Ms. Walter is one of the nation's top political forecasters and recipient of The Washington Post's Crystal Ball award for her spot-on analyses. She has been a featured commentator on CNN, The Newshour with Jim Lehrer (PBS), Face the Nation (CBS), Meet the Press (NBC), Washington Journal (C-SPAN), and Real Time with Bill Maher (HBO).

4:00 pm • Tuesday, October 7, 2008
Hoff Theater, Stamp Student Union
Reception will follow lecture