

MIND THE MAP!

Seeking paid research participants

Mind the Map!* is part of NGA's Geospatial Intelligence Cognition (GEOCOG) program

Study Features

- One 3-hour session
- $20/hour compensation, with up to +$10/hr bonus
- 4600 River Rd.
 - (free parking, accessible via DOTS 104)
- Map editing tasks (no prior experience necessary!)
- Procedure will also involve screen recording, surveys, cognitive tasks, and physiological sensors (e.g., fNIRS, EEG, GSR, eye-tracking)

Participating

Follow the link to the right to provide consent and take our pre-screen. UMD ARLIS researchers will reach out to schedule a time for you to participate. Questions? Email us at: mindthemap@arlis.umd.edu

Requirements

Volunteers should:

- have normal or corrected-to-normal vision;
- meet requirements for physiological sensor data;
- be fluent in English; and
- be at least 18 years of age

Paid Study

This study is running in
September and early October, 2024

$20/hour with up to a
$10/hour bonus for a 3-hour
study (i.e., up to $90 total)

Open to UMD undergraduate and graduate students

Participate at the University of Maryland, College Park

Consent and Pre-Screen at:

go.umd.edu/mindthemap2024