

Peer Support Group

FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS IMPACTED BY FAMILIAL INCARCERATION

The UnLocked Project's peer support groups are a safe, judgment-free space. We would love to hear your story, but sharing is 100% optional. Some people come to listen, others come to connect, and many just enjoy being in a space where they're understood.

Monday Meetings
Bi-weekly from 5-6:30pm

Find Us @McKeldin
Library, TLC Room
2111

Start Date
Monday, Sept. 15th
5-6:30pm

Info about our scholarship application

Feel less alone by meeting others with similar experiences.
Break stigma by building understanding and community.
Grow resilience with tools for well-being and success.

Free food provided

Scan to Register

Visit our website for more information
www.unlockedproject.org

